Killer Elite (MA) 116 mins 4-10May

Action Crime Thriller

Jason Statham's presence in a film usually promises action and it's certainly a major factor in KILLER ELITE, even though Statham's character Danny, a former assassin for hire, has hung up his six-shooter at the beginning of the film and retired to rural Victoria where a friendship with a neighbour, YVONNE STRAHOVSKI, promises to develop into something more. But there's always one last job and when Danny's former mentor Hunter, ROBERT DE NIRO, is kidnapped and held prisoner by a Middle East sheik, the price for his freedom is revenge for the killing of three of the sheik's sons by personnel from the British SAS.

But within the SAS there is a self-protective cadre and one of their most active members is a former SAS member – CLIVE OWEN.

The Artist (PG) 100mins 11-17 May

Drama Romance Comedy

In Hollywood in 1927, George Valentin, JEAN DUJARDIN, is a hugely popular star of silent swashbuckling movies and is invariably accompanied by his talented and faithful dog. Though adored by millions all over the world, he is stuck in a loveless marriage - PENELOPE ANN MILLER plays his wife. When talking pictures are introduced Valentin is unimpressed by the new medium. Meanwhile he's become attracted to bubbly Peppy Miller, BERENICE BEJO, a starlet on the way up. in all the wrong places

Margin Call (MA) 107mins 18-24 May

Drama Thriller

Oscar nominee for Best Original Screenplay J. C. Chandor has probed the emotions, the actions, the decisions on the trading floor of a New York investment bank on the eve of the global financial crisis. The mood is unsettled, people are being laid off, including risk manager Eric Dale, STANLEY TUCCI, who leaves a computer file he'd been working on in the hands of young trader Peter Sullivan, ZACHARY QUINTO.

Peter's discovery of the firm's position filters up through the system, to his immediate boss, PAUL BETTANY, to the manager of the trading floor, KEVIN SPACEY, to the financial manager DEMI MOORE, through the branch manager, SIMON BAKER, to the head honcho, JEREMY IRONS.
